Bicycling in New Jersey is regulated under Title 39 of the Motor Vehicles & Traffic Regulation laws.

In NJ, bikers must follow rules including:

- Bicyclists must keep to the right & follow road rules for motor vehicles.
- Children 17 & under must wear a helmet.
- A bicycle must have a bell & brakes & must display a white front light, rear light & red rear reflector at night.
- Bikers must ride single file but can ride two abreast when safe to do so.

The suggested routes are not official bike routes; ride at your own risk.
